

What is the role of restitution? Views from the Non-governmental sector

Msizi Cele, Public Square Foundation

Restitution is very important in South Africa because we need to find a way to work together as a nation (black and white) to deal with the inequalities created by our history. (Read more)

Derrick Naidoo - Coordinator: Community Health Network

This range of historic patterns of oppression have affected all. (Read more)

Ros Irlam Admin Director, Crossing Bridges.

As a "white" South African, it is easy to feel guilty or get defensive when thinking about restitution, but these are such unhelpful spaces to live! I rather choose to focus on two other ways to live: justice and blessing. (Read more)

Linda Biehl: Director Amy Biehl Foundation.

From my American perspective I credit South Africa with inspiring the World with the many initiatives it has taken to put open, honest efforts in place to deal with the aftermath of formalized apartheid (Read more) .

Ahmed Odefunso - Nigeria

The resource which was supposed to produce wealth and prosperity has rather brought curses and poverty to this land. (Read more)